SNAP's Objective & Vision

The poor condition of minorities in India is well known facts now. Some measures are taken by the Government to uplift their condition. We believe that it requires more than that to change the ground reality for them. As per Sachar Committee recommendation, Minorities especially Muslims, require community services....

December 12: Join Sangita in a webinar addressing gender-related challenges in remote mobile data collection

🕒 December 12, 2016

📍 Webinar

r.i.c.e. has recently launched the Social Attitudes Research in India (SARI) phone survey to track social attitudes over time and experiences of discrimination on the basis of gender, caste, and religion in India. Join Sangita in a webinar hosted by the World Food Program as she discusses r.i.c.e.'s experiences in collecting data from women through mobile phones in India. Read More..

Conference on Purity, Untouchability, and Open Defecation: Starting a Conversation for a Swacch Bharat

🕒 29th September, 2015

📍 Jawaharlal Nehru University, Convention Centre

To mark one year of the Swacch Bharat Mission, r.i.c.e. organized a conference in collaboration with the Indian Institute for Dalit Studies. The goal of the conference was to explore connections between beliefs in purity and untouchability and the practice of open defecation. Read More..
